

Forum: Poteries et Céramiques Européennes*Topic: aide pour identification*Subject: Re: aide pour identification

Posté par: Beauportois

Contribution le : 22/04/2017 21:25:20

Voici les informations (en anglais) trouvées sur internet:

Wileman and Co

Manufacturer of earthenware and China at Foley Works, Fenton

c.1890-1925

Renamed to Shelley Potteries Ltd

Wileman & Co (later Shelley) produced china from the same Foley works between 1892 and 1925.

The Wileman & Co pottery mark has distinguishing overlaid initials W and C normally with a crown above (your mark).

Wileman was also in partnership with J.B. Shelley over that period. In 1925 the company was renamed 'Shelley'.

The 'Old Foley' mark was issued by James Kent Ltd of Longton who produced various pottery marks out of the 'Old Foley Pottery' from 1897, but didn't market an actual 'Old Foley' brand until after 1955

Attacher un fichier:

---

À 687528299ffb6a893e5dd6b443f80a71.jpg (8.32 KB)

