Sarah Namer,

I read your comment with great enthusiasm. Our Association (ACCQ) as for objective to promote the study, knowledge and collection of Quebec Ceramic.

If you send me your email I could send you a registration form and and an invitation for Sunday's meeting in St. Lambert, Qu bec.

As for now, we publish in French, our forms are in French, but with time we may publish an article in English and translate some of our documents. Please collect all the information you can on your grandmother: this is very important.

For your information, beside the article by Lise Noiseux in our Journal, I would like to bring to your attention the chapter on Rosalie Namer in "Potiers qu b cois" by Serge Fisette, p. 97 to 106 (Mr Fisette is also a member of ACCQ).

Also in "Studio Ceramics in Canada " by Gail Crawford on p. 47, 83-86, 85 (a picture of her), 89, 95, 97, 100.

We have details of our next meeting in the Calendar (calendrier), coming this Sunday. If you look in the "reminder" sujet (RAPPEL), I will give the essentials of the invitation.

The email to reach the ACCQ (Association des collectionneurs de c ramique du Qu bec) is: [url=jbdion@gmail.com]jbdion@gmail.com[url]

the phone number: 514-972-3466

And the Postal address:
